Bio

Ann I. Kitts initially joined the firm in 1985 as a paralegal in the civil litigation department. She is a graduate of the American Bar Association accredited legal assistant program of Syracuse University at University College. She previously earned an A.A.S. degree in humanities and has completed continuing education courses through Le Moyne College. She has over twenty years of experience in civil litigation at Costello, Cooney & Fearon.

Ann has been involved in the litigation of complex personal injury and property damage cases from initial receipt through trial and appeal. Her experience includes responding to multi-party litigation discovery responses, reviewing complex medical files, and preparing subpoenas, demonstrative evidence, and exhibits for use at trial. She is a member of the Onondaga County Bar Association.
